Golden has secured a first-class watch-maker and jeweler, who worked for Geo. C. Scieles & Co. for years in San Francisco. Take your watches and jewelry there and have them repaired right.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

For the next 60 days I will sell Merchants Pipes, Brier Pipes and all other kinds for cost; also Knives, Razors, etc. I have a small line of stationery which will be sold for cost. I have 30,000 cigars that I will sell at wholesale prices by the box; also 300 lbs. of smoking and chewing tobacco and many other things too numerous to mention.

My goods will be all marked so that all will be treated alike. Goods must be sold; come one come all. m14 G. S. HAWKINS.

Sandrock and Millard, practical plumbers and gasfitters, have opened a shop in Dick Mills' old stand South Carson St., and propose to do all work in their line at prices so low that you don't have to mortgage your property, to pay them. Stoves and ranges and all kinds of tinware on hand, at very reasonable rates. Razors and scissors sharpened. j31tf.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his holiday stock. d 13 tf.

ALL SORTS.

The City Trustees met last evening.

The Sheriff is working the vagrants on the streets.

The Record-Union regards Stanley as a glittering humbug.

With three shoe stores in town no one need go bare footed.

Rudini has had another fit, but war has not yet been declared.

There is still some doubts about spring really being here.

Ex-Governor Waterman, of California, died at San Diego, Sunday evening.

Sally Bernhardt has decided that her Cleopatra is too advanced for a Carson audience.

Dr. Herdan made his regular weekly visit to Reno last evening. He will return to Carson this afternoon.

The census of England was taken in one night, yet we are in the habit of speaking of "those slow going English."

It is said that some of the Judges of the California Supreme Bench, are leading a daily gastronomic dance at Marchand's, on a What Cheer House income.

The sketch in a recent number of the Examiner, by Charles Michelson of a tramp perishing of thirst, and blindness on an Arizona desert was a piece of very strong descriptive writing.

James Conway came all the way from Reno yesterday to purchase a blooded cow at the Holstein ranch. When Conway gets stock of any kind he goes directly for the thoroughbred and nothing but the best suits him.

The politician who succeeds should be an expert in two ways—he must be able to talk eloquently against bribery in elections and also be able to put his hand in his pocket at the right moment in order to show the boys that he didn't mean what he said.—Sentinel.

Prof. Frank and wife, the New York Officers who sojourned with us for the last three or four months left for the Bay on last evening's train. The Professor has a valuable invention for which he has a Stock company established in San Francisco that is going to manufacture the article, which requires his presence. The Professor has undoubtedly a large fortune before him.

Fun To-Night.

The opening of the theatrical season of 1890 and '91 found more attractions (good, bad and indifferent) on the road, than in the past season. Generally, about the first of October, the small and inferior attractions commence to drop off, and December usually finds only the best plays and players still traveling.

One of the most successful plays of the present season has been the comedy drama "Si Plunkard," with Mr. J. C. Lewis in the title role, supported by a company of 20 talented artists.

The company appears at the Opera House to-night, and seats may be secured at Hawkins' cigar store without extra charge.

Card of Thanks.

To all the friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our sister, and to the clergyman and choir who officiated at the funeral services, also the ladies who so willingly donated flowers, we tender our sincere thanks.

MR. AND MRS. H. MORRISON,
MRS. KATE DUFFY,
MRS. JOSIE DEVIN.

Dangerously Ill.

It was reported yesterday that George Chedie had been stricken with paralysis, but in the evening it was reported as heart disease. At last accounts he was in an alarming condition.

Potatoes for Sale.

Frank Pine has a lot of potatoes he will sell at 75c per 100 lbs, if called for immediately at Dias' hay yard. a13w

Showing the Boy Through.

John Mackay showed his son through the mines last week. The young man had never been underground before and the old man gave him the "grand gaff" as they say.

"Here my son is the place where they feed the 'donkeys' in the evening," he said as he waved his hand to the V. Bob station.

"How do they get down here Dad?"

"We run 'em up through the Sutro tunnel, that's what it was for. Then we breed 'em. I have an imported strain of 'donkeys' and they do well here."

"I say Dad, where are the porphery horses?"

"They are down on the four thousand level exercising. The last time I was down here one of those horses ran away, and it nearly frightened the 'giraffe' to death. Some of those darned horses are the devil to manage."

"When you cornered so much wheat a few years ago, did you store it down here where the boys couldn't find it?"

"Y-e-s 'er, I had it here until Brander found some, and gave the whole snap away."

"When you told Fair down at the Bay that you were going to 'cinch the shorts,' what did you mean Dad?"

"Shut your mouth you d—n fool, whatever you say in these drifts you can hear half a mile. Don't talk so much, here's a gang of these same shorts right behind us."

Desperado Captured.

On Saturday last Deputy Sheriff Hall, brought in a desperado known as Boss Austin, whom he caught in the Goose Creek Mountains, and Judge Conger promptly sentenced him to six months in the Elko jail. Austin and another desperado named Dove have for a long time been robbing settlers and sheepherders on the borders of Idaho, Utah and Nevada, and making raids into Teocoma, Toano and other unprotected towns, terrorizing the inhabitants by knocking them down with six-shooters and shooting into their houses. They came into Teocoma two weeks ago and perfectly riddled Bellinger's Hotel, while the proprietor and three of his children were very low with pneumonia. Dove escaped into the mountains.

Who Knows?

The APPEAL constantly receives letters from the East making inquiries about the Red dredger and the Carson river. The last letter is from Rome N. Y. and makes inquiries that would cost the editor at least $100 to investigate and answer.

Among other things it wants to know is, if 27 tons of the tailings were worked at the Bonanza mill last November at a profit $600.

Anyone who can answer this question will please address this office.

At His Old Tricks.

Harry Bethune, the notorious faking sprinter and champion 100-yard man of America, has been arrested in St. Louis on a warrant from Hancock county Ill., charging him with grand larceny and conspiracy. Bethune recently sold a race in his usual way at Carthage and got away with $5000, and then skipped to St. Louis under an assumed name.

COAST NEWS.

The White Mountain Apaches in Southeastern Arizona are reported to be very uneasy.

Mrs. L. E. McElroy has filed her bond at San Rafael as a notary public. She will locate at San Quentin.

Word has reached Walla Walla that Chief Homely of the Cayuse Indians had dropped dead of heart disease in his camp on the Columbia river. Homely captured and beheaded Withered Arm Egan, the Bannock Chief in 1878.

Don Shorb, the 7-year-old son of Hon. J. de Barth Shorb, was bitten by an English bulldog at Los Angeles Friday, when a crowd teased the animal. It became enraged, and suddenly turned and grabbed the unfortunate child by the leg. One leg, one hand and one arm were literally chewed up. The animal had to be shot before he would let go. The boy is dying.

Woodland is in an excitement over a report that a strange creature, "much resembling a gorilla," has been seen in the hills adjacent to Capay Valley. The story is vouched for by more than one responsible man. It is said to be at least six feet tall when standing erect, travels on all fours, climbs trees, and has wonderful strength in its hands. It has a shaggy covering.

Albert P. Wade died in Los Angeles February 17th. Wade was from San Francisco, where he left his wife and children. He was in poor health and had drawn all his money, $5,500, from bank when he left San Francisco last December. He seemed anxious that his wife should receive none of his money, so he distributed it among newly found friends, one person getting $2,000. Now his wife appears, and the Public Administrator demands that all parties who received the money should pay it into court. A sensation is promised.

How it Was Done.

The last session of the Nevada Legislature passed, in a manner, a bill to require owners of stallions to pay a license. It seems that none of the owners of stallions are paying any attention to the new law (?), however, as it transpires that there is an irregularity in the law. The bill was introduced in the Assembly. It then went to the Senate, where it was amended, and from there to the Governor's hands, without being returned to the Assembly for concurrence in the amendments. The Governor signed the bill, but it is very evident that law will be inoperative owing to its history.—Lyon County Times.

It is quite probable that some "funny work" was played on the bill by interested parties to invalidate it. That's the way some people have of killing bills they don't like.

Should Have Hit Him.

On Sunday night about half-past ten o'clock Harry Rosenthal, who lives near Folsom's wood-yard, was roused by a knocking on his door. He went out, to find a young lady who sought the refuge of his house because she had been pursued by a man for some distance in the dark. Leaving the young lady with his wife he walked out with a six-shooter and fired two shots after a man who was sneaking away, but unfortunately missed him.
